

LaPoint Blase Industries, Inc. dba EWR Weather Radar

SIN: 58-6 – Telecommunications Equipment, Including Spare & Repair Parts, and Accessories
58-7 – Ancillary Services

Company Information:

LaPoint Blase Industries, Inc. dba EWR Weather Radar has a documented history of successfully providing and sustaining portable/tactical weather radar systems for the U.S. Department of Defense, foreign militaries and commercial clients since its inception in 2003. EWR's heritage in developing and supporting portable radar systems, in conjunction with the company's dedication to the advancement of weather radar technology with state-of-the-art products and services, has made EWR the gold standard in weather radar.

EWR is an established and recognized domestic and international brand with a proven record of excellence among federal contracts. As an industry leader in portable weather radars, EWR is strategically aligned with academia, industry partners in the weather community and the world's leading weather radar engineers, many of whom serve on EWR's Advisory Board.

EWR provides products and services to a wide array of different clients, including the U.S. Department of Defense, NASA, utility companies, oil companies, municipalities, first alert responders and broadcasting stations.

EWR offers many different products and services specifically designed to conform to the user's individual needs. EWR's product offerings are all Commercial Off the Shelf (COTS) items; however, EWR has the capability to fine-tune weather radars to meet the specific needs of the client and the mission.

15. Warranty provision:

WARRANTY: EWR warrants the Equipment, when properly applied and operated within specified conditions, against faulty materials or workmanship for a period of one (1) year from the date of original delivery. Equipment consists of all deliverables, Line Replaceable Units (LRU's) and all items on Spare Parts List. This warranty covers repair or replacement of defective Equipment (labor and parts) when repairs are performed by EWR. EWR's warranty applies to all parts and equipment described above when replaced or repaired at organizational-level and depot-level repair facilities by trained personnel. EWR does not warranty workmanship and/or labor for organizational and/or depot repair. EWR does not warranty damage or failure of components due to improper repair performed at the organizational-level and/or depot-level.

Equipment repaired or replaced pursuant to this warranty shall be warranted for the non-expired portion of the warranty applying to the original Equipment. The warranty shall be void if (a) the Equipment is damaged by Buyer, is improperly used, is subjected to an adverse operating environment, or is operated outside the limits of its electrical specifications; (b) the Equipment is repaired or modified by anyone other than EWR approved personnel; or (c) has been used in a manner contrary to its operating manual or other written instruction. When a failure or field test suggests that Equipment may be faulty, whether in or out of the warranty period, a full report of the difficulty should be telephoned to the EWR's Customer Service Department. Upon receipt of this report, the Service Department will provide the assistance required to repair or replace the Equipment. EWR will not be liable for any associated costs incurred by the user, as a direct or indirect result of failure or in the replacement of defective, in-warranty Equipment, unless EWR grants prior approval. Unauthorized returns of Equipment for in-warranty repairs will be subject to an inspection and handling charge, plus any repair and all transportation charges. Buyer must obtain return/replacement authorization from the Customer Service Department and indicate the Return Authorization Number that will be provided on the outside of the return packaging materials. Buyer is responsible for shipping charges, shipping insurance, and packaging the Equipment securely to avoid shipping damage, using the original packaging. If this packaging is no longer available, Buyer shall contact the Customer Service Department for instructions prior to returning Equipment. Advice furnished before or after delivery in regard to use or application of Equipment is furnished on the basis that it represents EWR's best judgment under the circumstances, but it is used at Buyer's sole risk. THIS WARRANTY IS EXPRESSLY IN LIEU OF ALL OTHER WARRANTIES, EXPRESSED OR IMPLIED, INCLUDING, WITHOUT LIMITATION, ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OR MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, AND/OR ANY OTHER OBLIGATION OR LIABILITY ON THE PART OF EWR. The sole and exclusive remedy for breach of any warranty, express or implied, and the only obligation of EWR there under, shall be the repair or replacement of defective Equipment or, at EWR's option, refund of the purchase price or substitution with a new replacement product. EWR shall in no way be responsible for any consequential damages, of any kind or nature, acts of war, acts of God whatsoever, resulting from the breach of any warranty, express or implied.
